

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASELEADENHALL CAPITAL PARTNERS HIRES BRIAN HICKEY TO BEEF UP ITS FUNDRAISING FUNCTIONS*London – 25th July 2025

Leadenhall Capital Partners ('Leadenhall' or 'LCP'), a leading investment manager insurance-linked strategies, is pleased to announce the appointment of Brian Hickey as Senior Managing Director within its Business Development team. In this role, Brian will lead fundraising efforts across North America, reporting to Lorenzo Volpi, Managing Partner and Deputy CEO.

Brian brings over 30 years of experience and a proven track record in fundraising, investor relations, and business development across leading asset management and private equity firms. He joins LCP from AE Industrial Partners LP, a venture and private equity specialist, where he served as Managing Director for Capital Formation. Prior to that, he held senior roles at top-tier firms including Brookfield Asset Management, Advent Capital Management, and the insurance-linked strategies investment firm Pillar Capital Management.

Brian Hickey will join forces with Brian Weatherholtz to improve Leadenhall's market penetration and client coverage in the North America region.

"We are thrilled to welcome Brian to the team" said Lorenzo Volpi, "his leadership and deep expertise in the North American market will be instrumental as we expand our reach and continue to deliver value to our clients and partners".

Leadenhall CEO Luca Albertini said: "Leadenhall Capital Partners remains committed to reinforcing its position as a leading investment manager, and Brian's appointment reflects our continued commitment to invest in experienced leadership that strengthens our ability to serve clients globally".
